

Friday 5th February Literacy - Editing challenge 1.

1. Look at my sentences in need of help on the left side of the table.
2. Use the checklist to highlight where I have made any mistakes.
3. Re-write my sentences on the right side making them better.
4. As well as the spelling and punctuation, can you add any more interesting words?

My sentence in need of help!	Your improved sentence 😊
one niht the bird flew to the city.
He was tired wanted somewhere to slep
Then he felt a drop of worter on his head
the prince woz crying so the bird whent up to see him.

Checklist for editing:

- Capital letters - check proper nouns carefully
- Spelling
- Punctuation - think about commas, full stops and apostrophes
- Check for sense - does it sound right? Is it in the past tense?
- Add improvements to make your writing more ambitious!

Friday 5th February Literacy - Editing challenge 2 & 3.

Make sure you have yesterday's writing to hand - you will need it

1. Read carefully through your work from yesterday, thinking about this checklist as you go.
2. Highlight at least 5 things in your work which you want to correct or improve.
3. Write each original sentence into the left side of the table below.
4. After thinking carefully about improvements, re-write each sentence on the left side including all your corrections and addition.

Checklist for editing:

- Capital letters - check proper nouns carefully
- Spelling
- Punctuation - think about commas, full stops and apostrophes
- Check for sense - does it sound right? Is it in the past tense?
- Add improvements to make your writing more ambitious!

Sentence from first draft	New and improved sentence