

Thursday 28th Literacy - Contrasting language in story opening - Challenges 1 & 2.

1. Up/Sky/Rich/Clean/Fixed/ Golden/Beautiful 	2. Down/Floor/Dirty/Moving/ Grey/Ugly

Look at these phrases from the story. Which describe the statue and ideas about the prince's own former life, and which describe the city and lives of poor people around him? Write them in to the correct column above.

- A. High above the city, on a tall column...
- B. He was covered all over with thin leaves of fine gold. For his eyes he had two bright sapphires and a large, red ruby glowed on his sword.
- C. "I can see all the ugliness and misery of my city".
- D. Far away in a little street there is a poor house.
- E. It is a fine position with plenty of fresh air.
- F. ... "while beggars were sitting at the gates and starving children crouched in the black streets".
- G. I saw the rich sitting happily in their beautiful houses.

Thursday 28th Literacy - Contrasting language in story opening - Challenge 3.

1. Up/Sky/Rich/ Clean/Fixed/ Golden/Beautiful		2. Down/Floor/ Dirty/Moving/ Grey/Ugly

1. Look at the phrases from the story below. Which describe the statue and ideas about the prince's own former life, and which describe the city and lives of poor people around him? Write them in to the correct column above.

- A. High above the city, on a tall column...
- B. He was covered all over with thin leaves of fine gold. For his eyes he had two bright sapphires and a large, red ruby glowed on his sword.
- C. "I can see all the ugliness and misery of my city".
- D. Far away in a little street there is a poor house.
- E. It is a fine position with plenty of fresh air.
- F. ... "while beggars were sitting at the gates and starving children crouched in the black streets".
- G. I saw the rich sitting happily in their beautiful houses.

2. Highlight the words in the phrases that show the strong contrast.

3. Have a go at adding two sentences of your own on each side. Can you use different vocabulary to the examples above?