Naturally, as a budding coleopterist you are curious to learn more and so turn to your trusty companion - The Beetle Collector's Handbook. Read the excerpts from The Beetle Collector's Handbook about the giraffe necked weevils, jewel beetles and goliath beetles (found in Teams – Files – Class Materials) to help you prepare for the prestigious quiz at the annual Coleopterists ball. This year (due to Covid) it will be moved on an online event at 1pm today. Points will be awarded for correct answers to beetle related questions. There will be bonus points for anybody dressed smartly for the event. (Mr O will be wearing his tuxedo.)	LUNCH TIME	ONLINE TEAMS LESSON Dress smartly for the Bug Ball at 1pm today! Stay behind on this meeting for maths tuition if you have any questions about the maths work this morning	Oak Academy Music Developing Body Percussion 2 https://classroom.thenational.academy/units/timbre-ac27	BREAK TIME	'Feel Fab Feb' has been created to encourage you to be physically active (essential for well-being), but also for you to spend time doing things you love, as well as potentially trying/learning something new. This is a challenge can be done on your own, or as a family. Please look at the form saved in Class Materials to start ticking off the different challenges, enjoy! There are certificates for the people who complete the most challenges! Why not also get involved in The Great Big Art Exhibition? https://firstsite.uk/ While the doors to our museums and galleries are shut, famous artists will be challenging you to create your own works of art to display in your front windows, gardens or balconies The theme this week set by Antony Gormley is 'animals'.	ONLINE TEAMS MEETING
