

This term in Reception, our children have enjoyed the adventures of Supertato! This funny story has inspired children to make traps and have adventures of their own! A hilarious and anarchic story with truly brilliant characters. No child could fail to fall in love with Supertato and his veggie companions.

A spud fulfils his destiny as a supermarket superhero in this delightfully wacky picture book by Paul Linnet and Sue Hendra. He's the supermarket superhero with eyes everywhere—always on the lookout for danger. ...

If you enjoyed these books, look out for other quirky books by Paul Linnet and Sue Hendra. Like Barry the fish with fingers or the bear who stared.

In Year One, our children have enjoyed reading The Bear and The piano by David Litchfield. This is a moving tale of exploration and belonging from a relatively new exciting author-illustrator, boasting some beautiful artwork.

A bear finds a piano in the woods, learns to play it, and travels to the big city to become rich and famous, but ultimately discovers that his old friends in the forest back home are still the best audience of all.

If you enjoyed these books, look out for the others in the series like The Bear, the piano, the dog and the fiddle or Little Bear's concert.

Year 2 have been enjoying finding out about Meerkats and their relatives using this beautifully illustrated lift the flap book. Meerkat Mail is a brilliant picture book from Emily Gravett, the winner of the Kate Greenaway Medal.

Sunny Meerkat lives in the Kalahari desert with his family. Sunny needs a break, so he decides to take a trip to visit some relatives....but he's not too busy to write postcards home.

If you enjoyed this book you might want to try these other books by Emily Gravett.

This Term's Recommended Read

The Giraffe and the Pelly and Me is a 1985 children's book written by Roald Dahl and illustrated by Quentin Blake. The plot follows a young boy named Billy who meets a giraffe, a pelican, and a monkey, who work as window cleaners.

Humorous, charming and some senseless bits make the tale very easy for those starting to read books that are longer than picture books.